

I oppose changes to regulations to allow greater concentration of media control in the hands of a few corporations. Such changes undermine a free and independent press and thereby undermine democracy itself. Do not lift the ban on cross-ownership of media. Such a centralization of opinion has already gone too far.